St. Michael
Sexual Abuse of a Minor 1st Degree: On October 12, 2026, AST learned of a minor in St. Michael who reported recent and ongoing sexual abuse. The investigation was referred to ABI in Nome. Between October 12 and October 15, 2026, ABI investigated this case. ABI served a search warrant at a house in Saint Michael and developed enough information to arrest Tyrone Cheemuk-Fitka, 22, of St Michael for three counts of Sexual Abuse of a Minor in the 1st Degree. The case is still under investigation and more charges are anticipated. ABI remanded Cheemuk-Fitka to AMCC in Nome.

Nome
Assault 3, MIW, Violating Conditions of Release: On October 17, 2026, at 3:14 p.m., a caller reported an apparent burglary in progress at a house near 4-mile Beam

Road in Nome. AST started responding to the call. A short time later, a neighbor near the scene called AST and reported a man just fired a gun toward him as he was driving his ATV in the area. Upon arrival, AST contacted the assault victim, and Rafael Rodriguez, 52, of Galt, CA near the scene. Rodriguez and a female companion had rushed to the property to stop the apparent burglary. Rodriguez saw a man driving his ATV near the property and ordered him to stop. When the man didn't stop, he raised and fired a handgun near him. The reported burglary turned out to be unfounded, and ABI and AST returned to the property to serve a search warrant at the property. Rafael Rodriguez was arrested for Assault in the 3rd Degree, Misconduct Involving Weapons, and Violating Conditions of Release in an open criminal case. Rodriguez was remanded to AMCC in Nome.
